

PROFESSIONAL TRAINING SPECIALIST

PROGRAM
PORTFOLIO

About us

BEEHIVE ASSOCIATES is a multi-disciplinary firm; we provide research, recruitment, training and management consultancy services. We work with our clients to develop sustainable solutions specific to clients' needs.

Our outlook is to help organizations' build her human capital and install functional management systems in synergy with the organization's corporate vision and set goals, aimed at rapidly achieving within time.

As part of our consultancy services we offer clients the most consistent audit review on employee performance, carried out with a cutting-edge and precise strategy in core competence areas of human resource functions and project management.

Our Vision....

To build a reputable world class consultancy and human resources development firm through the provision of customized services that focus on the needs of the clients.

Our Mission....

To empower people through capacity building,
hire and mentor clients' to effectively achieve set goals.

Approach to clients' needs:

- o Research on client's need
- o Review of client's current practices
- o Implementation of improved processes
- o Training to upgrade skills
- o Mentoring of clients with specific roles
- o Audit of benefits gained.

Our Training Centres:

- o Nigeria (NGR)
- o United Kingdom (UK)
- o United State of America (USA)
- o United Arab Emirate (UAE)
- o South Africa (SA)

Kindly note that special arrangement could be made by us to bring in expatriate professionals from the United Kingdom and the United States of America on client's demand.

Our Clientele Base:

Our service is built to satisfy the generic needs of such government and non-governmental organizations with local and international contents.

Organizations' in our clientele list:

- I. Nigeria National Petroleum Corporation (NNPC)
- II. Petroleum Technology Development Fund (PTDF)
- III. Abuja Enterprise Agency
- IV. ERCAS Integrated Solutions Abuja
- V. Abuja Electricity Distribution Company (AEDC)
- VI. Fiscal Responsibility Commission (FRC)
- VII. Abuja Environmental Protection Board (AEPB)
- VIII. Abuja Metropolitan Management Council
- IX. Raw Material Research and Development Council
- X. Office of the Auditor General for Federal Capital Territory Area Council
- XI. National Broadcasting Commission

COURSE OUTLINE:

MANAGEMENT	FINANCE, ACCOUNTS AND ECONOMIC MANAGEMENT	HUMAN RESOURCES MANAGEMENT	LEADERSHIP	ENVIRONMENTAL
A. Project Management: Foundational Course in Project Management B. Practitioners course in Project Management	International Public Sector Accounting Standards (IPSAS)	Foundational course in Human Resource Management	Foundational course in Leadership Development	Neighbourhood Waste Management
Modern Techniques in Monitoring and Evaluation Management	Public Sector Financial Administration	Global Human Resources Management	Personnel Management and Emotional Intelligence	Meeting the Urban Environmental Challenges
Change Management	International Financial Reporting Standard (IFRS)	Talent and creativity management	Transactional Analysis	Strategies for Achieving Cleanliness in the Urban Centres
Stress Management	Forensic Auditing and Accounting	Human Resources Information System Management	Corporate Leadership	Building a Private Environmental Entrepreneurship and Consultancy Services
Effective work Performance Management	Use of Computer for Financial Management	Data Base Management for ICT Practitioners Administrative Officers and Secretaries	Developing Executive Leadership	Waste Management
Corporate Strategic Planning	Advanced Financial Management System	Administrative Principles, Processes and Practice in Public sector organisations	Transformational Leadership	Urban and Rural Sustainability and Beautification

MANAGEMENT	FINANCE, ACCOUNTS AND ECONOMIC MANAGEMENT	HUMAN RESOURCES MANAGEMENT	LEADERSHIP	ENVIRONMENTAL
Effective Time Management	Salary preparation in public sector	Professional course in secretarial and Administrative skills	Building Relationship Capital: Maximising the Value of Professional Contacts	Public and Private Partnership Sustainability Course in Environmental Management
	Auditing and investigation in Public Sector	Research and Documentation	Management and Team Development
	Procurement and Material Management	Effective Report writing, Memo, Communication and Presentation skills	Building Leadership Capital: Maximising the Value of Corporate Intelligence
	Tendering and Contract Management	Registry and Records Management
	Procurement and supply chain Management in Public Sector	Computer Appreciation and Application Skills for Secretaries and Administrative Officers
	Averting Financial And Economic Fraud	Effective Retirement Planning and Entrepreneurship

MANAGEMENT COURSES

PROJECT MANAGEMENT

Project Management is a process-based approach to project management providing an easily tailored and scalable method for the management of all type projects. Each process is defined with key inputs and outputs together with specific objectives to be achieved and activities to be carried out.

The method describes how a project can be divided into manageable stages enabling efficient control of resources and timely progress monitoring. The various roles and responsibilities for managing a project are fully described and adaptable to suit the project size, complexity and the skills within the organization.

Project Management Objectives:

- A controlled and organized start, middle and end
- Regular reviews of progress against plans and against Business case
- Flexible decision points
- Automatic management control of any deviations from the plan
- The involvement of management and stakeholders at the right time and place during the project
- The necessary controls and breakpoints to work successfully within any required contractual framework
- A common language across all the interested parties thereby ensuring effective communication channels between the project team, project management and the rest of the organization.

1. FOUNDATIONAL COURSE IN PROJECT MANAGEMENT.

Course Content:

- Project Management Framework
- Project Integration Management
- Project Scope Management
- Project Time Management
- Project Cost Management
- Project Quality Management
- Project Human Resource Management
- Project Communication Management
- Project Risk Management
- Project procurement management

2. PRACTITIONERS' COURSE IN PROJECT MANAGEMENT

Content:

- Plans and Planning
- Controlled progress and stages
- Configuration management and filling
- Change control
- Management of risks
- Management product delivery
- Handling Exception and Managing stage Boundaries
- Controlled Closed
- Product Based Planning-Product Breakdown, Structure and Product flow Diagram
- Quality and Quality review

3. EFFECTIVE WORK PERFORMANCE MANAGEMENT

This is the co-ordinated management of activities which facilitates organizations' to achieve set goals that are strategic importance.

Performance management involves:

- Working within and changing culture of an organisation
- Delivering work at an acceptable Pace and Realising Benefits or objectives
- The arts performance management balance the impact in an organization who uses performance tools to affect culture, pace, and benefits.

Course Objectives:

Our training is packaged to:

- Help encourage excellent performance by setting clear objectives that are linked to corporate plans, Government objectives and leadership competencies and rigorously evaluating achievement of results
- Help organization recognize and reward performance and identify under-performances
- Help provide a knowledgeable frame work within which a consistent and equitable approach to performance management can be applied.

Course Content:

- Introduction and performance management principles
- Governance Themes
- Vision
- Performance management in the organization.
- Managing Employee performance
- Coaching for performance
- Giving and receiving feedback
- Time management for effective work performance
- Emotional intelligence
- Organizational work ethics
- Developing interpersonal skill for effective work performance

4. MODERN TECHNIQUES IN MONITORING AND EVALUATION MANAGEMENT

The different stages of project management require an efficient procedural approach to achieve the overall purpose for the project. We have packaged this course to help equip individuals and organisations with the requisite knowledge and skills for monitoring and evaluation.

Objectives:

- Analyse the development objectives and approach,
- How to identify the role of monitoring and evaluation in cycle and how to achieve objectives,
- How to carry out reviews and compile reports for timely decision making
- How to apply appropriate instruments and procedures for reporting and evaluating the impact and sustainability of processes or projects

Course content:

- Overview of monitoring and evaluation
- Logical frame work approach
- Result framework
- Data collection analysis
- Developing and assessing monitoring ad evaluation indicators
- Reporting and progress review
- Qualitative evaluation methods
- Using evaluation Lessons
- Impact and sustainability monitoring and evaluation

5. CORPORATE STRATEGIC PLANNING

For an organization to grow and achieve her set goals and objectives, it must have a well out lined strategic plans. Strategic planning answers the fundamental questions organizations' require to achieve results in their timely plans. We have packaged this course to help organizations set a clear cut plans and also prioritize on their objectives.

Course Objectives:

The training is harnessed to help participant:

- Communicate the importance of strategic planning for corporate survival
- Equip participants with fundamental strategic planning skills
- Explain how to access the typical strategic planning skills required by organisations.

Course content:

- History and background of strategic planning
- Adopting organisations strategies
- Strategic planning
- Innovative and creative planning
- Corporative Governance and risk management
- Achieving result through strategic planning
- Goal setting ad leadership
- Key performance indicator

6. STRESS MANAGEMENT

Course Objectives:

The course is designed to help participants:

- Understand stress and the causes
- Effect of stress on job performance level
- How to manage stress
- Manage conflict in a stressed situation
- The value of time in stress management
- Understand phases of emotion and how to manage them

Course content:

- What is stress
- Stressors
- Types of stress
- Performance stress symptoms

- Effect of stress on job performance
- Myths about stress
- Coping skills(how to manage stress level)
- How to deal with worries
- Healthy living
- What you can do to relieve stress
- Effective time management and stress
- Managing conflicts

7. EFFECTIVE TIME MANAGEMENT

Course Objective:

Time cannot be managed, we can only manage ourselves.

Those who do not take the time to do something right, must make the time to do it over.

Participant will learn to:

- Effectively understand the characteristics of time
- Importance of planning and how to plan
- Understand their work habit and thus align with their prime time
- Write schedule
- Manage their time to overcome stress

Course Content:

- Definition of time
- Characteristics of time
- Importance of managing time effectively
- Why manage your time effectively
- Time management steps
- Characteristics of effective goals
- Time thieves
- Overcoming procrastination
- Creating blocks of time
- Telephone techniques
- How to use your waiting time

FINANCE ACCOUNT AND ECONOMIC MANAGEMENT

8. INTERNATIONAL PUBLIC SECTOR ACCOUNTING STANDARDS (IPSAS)

Course Overview:

International public sector Accounting standard(IPSAS) are being introduced in almost every country in the world. International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) have replaced international Accounting Standards (IAS) and are now becoming the world standard, but in many ways this is not specific enough for the needs of the public sector.

This course helps participants meet the challenges of introducing IPSAS and secure the benefits of improved financial management to help secure organizational objectives and goals of their public service organization.

Course objectives:

Participants will gain knowledge and skills to:

- Describe clearly the background to IPSAS and introduction to the public sector
- Identify and apply the links and implications to and for broader strategies including financial management, taxation, asset management, governance and accountability
- Understand the accounting standards and their implementation issues
- Explain how introducing IPSAS in the public sector will have implication for internal and external audits
- Know the accounting requirements of IPSAS
- Develop the skills to aid implementation, capacity building, benefits realization and risk management plans

Course Highlights:

- Unique learning and assessment programme tailored for the public sector
- High quality and practical programme developed by public sector financial reporting experts
- Support both direct IPSAS modified for the public sector.

9. PUBLIC SECTOR FINANCIAL ADMINISTRATION:

This course focuses on analyzing public financial management, reviewing systems of finance administration within the public sector and highlighting the need and possibility for reform. This will help with streamlining public expenditure, planning and budgeting.

Course Objectives:

Participants will gain knowledge and skills to:

- Demonstrate a better understanding of public fiscal administration
- Acquire improved capacity to reconcile financial plans and target achievement
- Implement financial management reform and improve on existing structures
- Demonstrate expertise and capacity building in the civil service
- Recognize the changing face of financial controls for the medium term financial strategy that is implemented.

Course Highlights:

- Financial management
- Best practice in central government
- Local authority management practices
- Impact of leading practice in organisations
- Public economics and finance: role of the government.

10. INTERNATIONAL FINANCIAL REPORTING STANDARD (IFRS)

Course Objectives:

At the end of the training, participants would have gained enormous knowledge in the various course content areas based on public service International Financial Reporting Standard and best practices as obtainable across the globe.

Course content:

- Forms and component of financial statements
- Statement of cash flows
- Fair value measurement
- Foreign policy translation
- Accounting policies, errors and estimates
- Events after the reporting period
- Inventories
- Impairment of non-financial assets
- Income taxes
- Revenue
- Employee benefits
- Interim financial reporting
- Financial instruments
- Hedges accounting
- Presentation and disclosure
- Financial instrument- Classification and measurement.

11. AVERTING FINANCIAL AND ECONOMIC FRAUD

Course Overview:

This course addresses the global problems of economic crime, money laundering and transactional fraud. It covers methods that tackle local manageable problems and also allow participants to develop their skills to confront the elusive criminal who manipulates cyberspace or who pulls levers from ever-shifting overseas base.

Course Objectives:

Participants will gain knowledge and skills to:

- Understand how to monitor internal procedures
- Approach case management and accountability of investigative actions
- Explain the benefits of information sharing within investigation constraints
- Recognize economic crime
- Eliminate fraudulent financial attacks.

Course Highlights:

- Exposure to the complex world of money laundering and recognition of its impact on the world economy
- The significant implication of adopting EU regulation No.7 relating to money laundering
- How to take advantage of a multi-agency approach to financial investigation
- Fundamental awareness and understanding of economic crime and identify the scope of the problems the organization is managing.

12. FORENSIC AUDITING AND ACCOUNTING:

Course Overview:

The course better equip internal auditors and financial investigators to effectively perform their tasks and set up proactive systems to detect and combat white-collar crime. It provides practical knowledge, as well as current forensic auditing techniques, to facilitate the prevention, detection, investigation, reporting and persecution of economic crime.

Course Objectives:

Participants will gain knowledge and skills in the following areas, how to:

- Describe the process,
- Understand generally accepted auditing standards(GAAS),principles and international standards,
- Identify risk analysis applications and fraud related issues,
- Report on and validate audit reports and present information for legal use,
- Appreciate the complex world of money laundering and third EU directive

Key course Highlights:

- Concept of fraud and corruption,
- Effects of fraud and corruption in government and governance,
- How to recognize areas vulnerable to fraud in organizations
- Applying fraud prevention best practices to minimize the risk to areas vulnerable to fraud and corruption,
- Techniques and tools required to support an investigation in a computerized environment.

13. USE OF COMPUTER FOR FINANCIAL MANAGEMENT:

Course objectives:

At the end of the training, participants will be able to:

- Design and implement a financial information system
- Prepare, monitor and evaluate budget using computer
- Use the computer for financial projections and analysis
- Manage inventory using computer

Course Highlights:

- Overview of financial information system,
- Overview of budgeting,
- Computer fundamental concepts,
- Introduction to windows operating system,
- Building spread sheet,
- Financial calculation using computer,
- Creating in-built functions,
- Auditing using spread sheet,
- Inventory management,
- The role of information Technology in accounting in public service.

14. ADVANCED FINANCIAL MANAGEMENT SYSTEM:

Course Overview:

The broad objective of the course is to equip participants with necessary skill, knowledge and right attitude to create effective financial management system.

Course Objective:

The course will help participant to:

- Identify the vital role of financial managers in the achievement of overall objectives of organizations
- Devise measures of financial accountability, prudent allocation and utilization of resources,
- Adopt current and standard best practice in the field of financial management
- Apply software in financial analysis and decision making in organizations
- Design and manage an efficient financial information management system
- Prepare timely financial report.

Course Highlights:

- Strategic planning and management
- Economic policy management
- Financial control in government
- Public sector accounting and financial reporting system
- International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS)
- Framework of government budgeting
- Auditing in government
- Public sector accountability and transparency
- Cost benefits
- Tax administration
- Asset management
- Procurement in public service
- E-payment design and maintenance of accounting records
- Software application to financial management.

16. SALARY PREPARATION IN PUBLIC SECTOR

Course Objectives:

Participants will be opportune to:

- Be able to examine the basic principles of salary preparations
- Describe the procedure for salary preparation and identify areas of weakness for corrective actions
- Explain the existing financial rules and regulations applicable to salary preparation
- Exchange ideas and experience in salary preparation across Ministries, Department and Agencies
- Acquaint with the relevant software's in salary preparation

Course Highlights:

- Principles and practices of salary management
- Public Sector Accounting
- Financial Control in Government,
- Personnel Emolument records and reconciliation,

- E-Payment design and maintenance of accounting records,
- Variation preparation and Control,
- Financial regulations and salary Preparation
- Preparation of salary and auditing the payroll,
- Data Base Management using MS Access,
- Institutional problems affecting salary preparation

17. AUDITING AND INVESTIGATION IN PUBLIC SECTOR

Courses Objectives:

The training is designed to help participants:

- Identify the scope and legal framework of Accounting and Auditing,
- Plan and implement Audit programmes,
- Prevent fraud and protect organization's assets,
- Identify and apply appropriate auditing and investigation techniques.

Courses Highlights:

- Accountability and financial reporting,
- Scope and objectives of auditing,
- Statutory and regulatory framework of auditing,
- Audit planning, implementation and control,
- System audit,
- Auditing and investigation techniques,
- Audit evidence and validation,
- Financial regulations and control,
- Fraud prevention, detection and control measures,
- Audit and investigatory report.

18. PROCUREMENT AND SUPPLY CHAIN MANAGEMENT IN PUBLIC SECTOR

Courses Overview:

The overall objective of the course is to provide the participant with skills, technique and tools to perform effectively in the field of Supply Chain Management

Course Objectives:

The course will enable participant gain knowledge and skill on how to:

- Describe and thus apply knowledge in the different operating areas of supply chain management,
- Identify techniques of handling supplies operation,
- Explain the importance of quality materials in supply chain management,
- Discuss within the context of the organizational development

Courses Highlights:

- Principles and practice of procurement management
- Professional ethics and due process in procurement,
- Guidelines on public procurement,
- Statutory and regulatory framework of public procurement,
- Tendering procurement,
- Role of supplies in business strategy,
- Quality control in procurement,
- Materials planning and budgeting,

- Receipts and inspection of stores,
- Classification and codification of stores,
- International purchasing,
- E- procurement,
- Asset management,
- Inventory management,
- Negotiation skills in procurement,

19. PROCUREMENT AND MATERIAL MANAGEMENT

Course Objectives:

The training will enable participants:

- Learn and understand the important roles of procurement and material management in public and private sector organizations,
- Identify the range of professional skills in contract negotiation and legal framework in procurement,
- Know the most modern development in material planning and control,
- Know how to use relevant software in handling materials information system.

Courses Highlights:

- Materials sourcing strategies,
- Specification and quality assurance,
- Pricing and payment methods,
- Statutory and regulatory framework of public procurement,
- Negotiation skills,
- International procurement,
- Overview of procurement Act 2007,
- Materials planning and budgeting control,
- Ethics in public procurement,
- Software application to materials engineering,

20. TENDERING AND CONTRACT MANAGEMENT

Course Objectives:

The course will enable the participant to:

- Understand the basis for procurement timing and payment to supplies,
- Evaluate bids, tender documents and the mechanism for price adjustment for work contracts,
- State the essentials of tendering procurement, filling and contract documentation system and the role of information technology in contract management.

Course Highlights:

- Tender and tendering procurement,
- Preparation of contract document,
- Evaluation of bids,
- Law of contract,
- Overview of public procurement Act 2007,
- Quality Control Management,
- Monitoring and Evaluation of contract performance,
- Software application to contract management,
- Contract costing and budgeting,

- Contract negotiation,
- Payment methods in contract,
- Due process in contract management

21. PUBLIC SECTOR AUDITING

Course Objectives:

The course will enable the participants to:

- Identify the role of audit management,
- Plan and execute effectively audit programmes,
- Coach, council and supervise subordinates' with greater confidence on audit assignments,
- Prevent fraud and safeguard asset and other resources.

Courses Highlights:

- Principles and Concepts of Accounting and Auditing,
- Statutory and Regulatory Framework of Auditing,
- Auditing planning, Implementation and Control,
- Auditing and public accountability,
- Auditing techniques,
- Fraud and Forensic Audit,
- International Public Sector Accounting Standards (IPSAS),
- Organization of Internal Audit Unit,
- Fiscal Responsibility Act (2007) and the role of Auditors,
- Financial Regulatory and Control,
- Software Application to Auditing,
- Writing Audit reports.

HUMAN RESOURCES MANAGEMENT

22. (1a) FOUNDATIONAL COURSE IN HUMAN RESOURCE MANAGEMENT

Course Objectives:

At the of the training, participants will

- Be able to know and develop new management concepts
- Explain strategic roles of Human Resource in corporate governance
- Be able to suggest performance management system to enhance the organizations' output
- Able to device new and cutting edge strategies to improve Human Resource planning.

Course Content:

- Human Resource Management concepts
- Importance of Human Resource Management
- Managing Human Resource in the 21st Century
- Effect of External Influence in HR Management
- Staffing Function Analysis
- Training and Development
- Translating HR Function into Practice
- Human Resource Planning
- Recruitment and Selection
- Performance Appraisal and Compensation

23. (1b) GLOBAL HUMAN RESOURCES MANAGEMENT

Course Overview:

The Global HRM is about understanding, researching, applying and revising all human resource activities in their internal and external contexts as they impact the process of managing human resource in enterprises throughout the global environment to enhance the experience of multiple stakeholders, including investors, customers, employees, partners, suppliers, environment and society.

Objectives:

- Ensure an international look with respect to local activities
- Spread cross cultural sensitiveness and awareness amongst managers and employees across the globe
- Bring in a local perspective in the region of operation

Course Content:

- Types of Global Organizations
- Importance of Global Human Resource
- Best Practice in Global HR Management
- International Business and HR
- Staffing the Global Organization
- International Labour Relations
- Expatriate
- Training and Development
- Performance Appraisal
- Repatriation of Expatriate

24. (1c). HUMAN RESOURCES INFORMATION MANAGEMENT SYSTEM

Course Overview:

Human Resource Management System or Human Resource Information System (HRIMS) cover entire picture of software which constitute attraction, selection, retention, development, and utilization labour resource in order to achieve both individual and organizational objectives

Course Objectives:

- Learn to perform the human resource function more effectively
- Be able to learn how to acquire, retrieve, store, manipulate, analyze and distribute organization information easily
- Give clear indication how to take precaution while implementing human resource management system in an organization
- Help in decision making

Course Content

- Introduction to Human Resource Information Management System
- How to select Human Resource Management System
- Payroll Module
- Training and learning management module
- Manpower planning module
- Recruitment module
- Leave management module
- Performance Appraisal Management module
- HRIMS Security
- Implementation of HRIMS

25. ADMINISTRATION PRINCIPLES, PROCESSES AND PRACTICE IN PUBLIC SECTOR ORGANIZATIONS

Course Objectives:

At the end of the training, participants will be able to know how to:

- Apply administrative techniques to government business,
- Have full knowledge of the rules and regulation and other policy areas as it concern public sector,
- Apply the code of conduct and ethics in public service,
- Enhance proper handling of official documents,
- Conduct government business in the most prescribed manner.

Course Highlights:

- Constitutional and administrative law,
- Public service rules and regulations,
- Code of conduct and ethics for public service,
- Writing report and memo for official purposes,
- Records and Information Management,
- Office routine in public service,
- Improving governance in public service,
- Organizational policy, initiating job description and implementation

26. TALENT AND CREATIVITY MANAGEMENT

Course Overview:

Talent is substantial, it is the ability to create and recreate the environment, a natural endowment inherent in every born creature man and animal,. Most men have not discovered this simple truth and so are un-aware of their creative ability...abilities in some cases Our talent is our possibilities, our power to create and render service to mankind and the environment. The knowledge and clear understanding of our individual talent is a determinant to how much we can succeed as man and as well as the environment and the organizations we work for.

Organizations fail because they have employed people without the pre-requisite talent for the jobs; however, they constantly seek human resource personnel to help them solve these outstanding problems.

Course Outcomes:

At the end of the training, participants would have gained enormous knowledge in:

- What talent is, who is talented and the different talent areas,
- The difference professional areas where talent can be applied to get results
- How to build products out of talent or skills and how to be creative,
- How to develop pre-requisite leadership quality and emotional intelligence for effective results,
- How to monitor and evaluate talent
- How to build mentor, partnership and network.

Courses Outlines:

- Description of talent
- Who is talented?
- Description of service
- Talent as the key product
- Creativity
- Types of Skills
- Leadership/ Emotional Intelligence
- How to hire and retain talent
- Measuring Talent and Performance level
- Your mentor
- Partnership
- Networking

27. DATA MANAGEMENT

Course objectives:

- Improves productivity by making it easy to control information and generate management reports
- Meticulous collection and cataloguing of information and documents, and timely access to even the smallest details
- Create files and office management application,
- Experience managing data integrity including address hygiene, data conversion, file formatting, and merge-purge processes
- Familiarity with correspondences and documentation

Course outline:

- Introduction to Database Management
- Monitoring Database
- Administering Database
- Masking Sensitive Data for Non-production use
- Maintaining databases
- Additional maintenance features

28. REGISTRY AND RECORDS MANAGEMENT

Course objective: At the end of the training, participants would acquire knowledge and skills in:

- Registry, its purpose and its importance to organizations,
- The management of officials mails, correspondence and documents,
- Managing electronic document, mails and correspondence,
- The process and procedure involved in public sector movement of files and other documents
- The security involved in maintaining files and other documents
- The development of new policies and process in filling and management of documents

Course Outlines:

- Definition of Registry and Functions
- Responsibilities of Registry and Registry Staff
- Managing Correspondences,
- File Classification
- Record Management
- Managing electronic records
- Maintaining the system: Security of records and filing Systems
- Organization Policy on Registry and Record Management
- Treating and Processing of Mails, letter, correspondence and Document in the public Services
- Accountability in Managing Government Documents

29. EFFECTIVE REPORTS WRITING, MEMO, COMMUNICATION AND PRESENTATIONS SKILLS

Course Overview:

With the right training, practically all the people in every organization could become polished reports writer, spokesperson or presenter. This is based on the premise that no one understands your products better than the experts who developed them.

Course objectives:

- Build an image of corporate technical excellence and openness
- Reinforce marketing and brand efforts
- Development and enhance staff communications skills
- Supports corporate team building
- Promote communication among company executive
- Increase corporate feasibility and media exposure
- Help blend technical expertise with presentation skills
- Develop them on how to convey complex and simple ideas easily
- Enhance reports writing skills

Course Content:

- Reports writing skills
- Development Memos'
- Presentations skills
- Negotiation skills
- Interpersonal skills

30. EFFECTIVE RETIREMENT PLANNING AND ENTREPRENEURSHIP

This course is packaged to help individuals who are on their jobs or those planning to retire on how to effectively plan for a full time retirement from either federal service or other service or other paid employment and want to explore new work options either as private entrepreneur or as private consultant.

Course Objectives:

- Evaluate how you got to where you are and discover where you want to go
- Take an inventory of who you are and what is important to you
- Assess your talent and natural strength
- Define your instinctive work style and preference
- Explore new work possibilities
- Identify personal network to help you find new work
- Decide what work you want to do and understand why
- Develop a roadmap to help you take a different path to work
- Identify the change you will need to make to reach your goals

Course Content:

- Your work paths – past, present and future
- Reflection on who you are and your values
- Bringing out the best in yourself and your talent
- Work style and preference
- Investigating new work possibilities
- Utilizing your personal network to help make the transition
- How to choose a different work path
- Creating a tailored work transition strategy
- Making changes to reach your new work goals
- Dealing with unplanned events
- Writing business plan and proposals

31. PROFESSIONAL COURSE IN SECRETARIAL ADMINISTRATIVE SKILLS.

Those employees who are in sectorial or administrative position, who wish to improve their skills, or those who are about to be appointed to such positions, most essentially, every individual who aspires to climb the ladder of leadership should have basic knowledge of sectorial and administrative skills.

Course Objective:

- To Acquire the skills and knowledge on effective administrative and secretarial skills
- Learn how to be assertive and build rapport with bosses
- To develop the skills needed to be a professional secretarial
- Learn how to set up and manage effectively filing systems
- Understand office equipment and the supportive role it plays in modern office environment

Other Gains:

1. Practical skills and knowledge to improve the overall administration within the office or organisation.
2. A good understanding of what makes a good secretary or Administrator.
3. Ability to plan and priorities time and activities.
4. Effective communication skills to deal with colleague and customers.

Course Contents:

- Secretarial & Administrative Roles
- Development professionals Image as Secretary
- How to take minutes at a meeting
- Duties of a secretary and Administrative Officers
- Records management
- Planning and prioritizing
- Effective filing system
- Documentation,
- Understanding and writing job descriptions.

32. RESEARCH AND DOCUMENTATION.

Course Objectives:

- Introduction to research work
- Scientific research
- Research problems
- Components of research
- Research hypothesis
- Research design
- How to critique a paper
- Processes of data gathering
- Main part of report from a research work
- Documenting Research report
- Processes in Documenting report

33. CUSTOMER SERVICES

Course overview:

Customer Today Demand World – Class Service.

They will reward companies that provide it by loyal, and they will take their business elsewhere if service is mediocre. Your every employee is the face and voice of your company. Businesses today realize the value these front-line services bring. Those that invest in their employees' success see the quick return on investment that customer services training provides.

Course Objective:

- Improved customer satisfaction score
- Reduced escalation with customers
- Increased resolution rates
- Improved staff morale and turnover
- Improves customer's quality and competitiveness.
- Create consistency and a common services language.
- Reduced operating cost

Course Content:

Module 1: Showing Customers you care

- Combining technical know- how with interpersonal skills
- Recognizing and addressing customers non – technical needs
- Integrating ethics and value into the job

Module 2: Making Positive Impression

- Projecting a positive image
- Using sample, positive language
- Understanding the power of body language

Module 3: Establishing Relationship

- Creating a professional impression when greeting customers
- Setting customers' expectations of services
- Building rapport with customers

Module 4: Understanding the Issue and customers Concern

- Using an efficient questioning strategy
- Honing your listening skills
- Confirming your understanding

Module 5: Sizing Up and Managing the Situation

- Classifying and working the problem
- Handling requests for increasing
- Briefing the customer

Module 6: Ending the call

- Adding values and closing the call
- Documenting the call
- Following – up after the call

Module 7: Managing Challenging Situations

- Staying positive under pressure
- Cooling down challenging situations
- Escalating the call

LEADERSHIP

34. FOUNDATIONAL COURSES IN LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT

At every level of governance, the quality of leadership across board is impressive as this measure for the amount of results they produce.

Course Objectives:

- Help participants learn the difference between leadership and management
- Gain insight into patterns, belief and Rules of leadership
- Define Qualities and strength of leadership
- Making Key Decisions
- Understanding good leadership behaviour
- Polishing Interpersonal skills
- Empowering, Motivating and inspiring others
- Leading by Example

Course Content:

- Concept of Leadership
- Traditional and Stereotypes
- Individual Leadership Qualification Strength
- Communication by behaviour
- The importance of Attitude
- Power of change
- Leadership by example
- Getting people committed to project
- Creativity & Innovation

35. PERSONNEL MANAGEMENT & EMOTIONAL INTELLIGENCE

As individual differ from one another in their ability to understand complex ideas , to adapt effectively to the environment, to learn from personal experience, to engage in various forms of reasoning to overcome obstacles by taking thought concept of personnel and emotional intelligence clarifies and organize this complex set of phenomena.

It is a point predictor of career success, amount for about 75% of the success achieved in an organisation.

Course and Objectives:

At the end of the training, participants would have environments skills on how to have:

- Improved personal skills
- Improves relationship with colleagues
- Improve communication with others
- Better empathy skills
- Improve their prospects
- Manage change more confidently
- Training on emotional intelligence will also benefits the participants in many more ways:
- Enhance their career and success potential
- Improve their personal productivity
- Increase job satisfaction
- Work easily with demanding clients and team members

- Improve work/life balance so they can enjoy their personal life.
- Mental Clarity
- Higher Productivity
- Magnetize talent
- Inspire People
- Less Choice

Course Content:

- Introduction to emotional intelligence
- Emotional intelligence models
- The components of emotional intelligence
- Importance and benefits of emotional intelligence
- How to acquire the skills of emotional intelligence
- Transactions (the ego states)

Photo Galleries

NIGERIA ADDRESS:

PAC APARTMENTS BEHIND PALM CITY ESTATE,
LIFE CAMP, ABUJA

UK ADDRESS:

63 ESLEMONT ROAD P04 OES PORTSMOUTH

08099442368

BEEHIVEASSOCIATES@GMAIL.COM

